COST EFFECTIVE PEOPLE MANAGEMENT

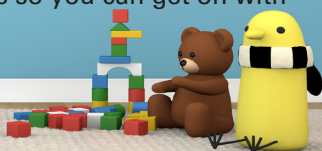

FOR SME'S

www.essentialhr.co.nz

An early childhood centre is not a typical business, there are many hoops you need to jump through in order to keep it running.

MoE payment fluctuations; varying staff hours; compliance; reporting and governance / management interaction.

This seminar offers you the chance to find out how you can get over these hurdles so you can get on with running your business.

YOUR PRESENTERS:

Mike Johnson - Essential HR

Mike has been providing people management advice to small and medium sized businesses for nearly 8 years and is a senior HR practitioner, a certificate member of HRINZ, a business mentor with Business Mentors NZ and previously a chartered accountant. Mike is passionate about his work and treats everyone as an individual and each situation as unique.

Nicole Elvy - Equation

Equation Limited is a Xero award winning company that specialise in the conversion, training and ongoing support of Xero and other cloud based solutions.

With qualifications in Accounting and Adult Teaching, Nicole is able not only to implement a system but also to deliver it in a manner that you can relate to and that is adapted to suit your needs.

We will show you the benefits of using Xero and how it can cut down your administration time and have the ability to access valuable information at a push of a button. Xero is cloud based so you can access it anywhere and anytime providing you have an internet connection.

Alan Sharr - Marriotts

Alan is a Principal of Marriotts Ltd and has worked in the accounting field for 32 years. He holds the Mentor role for students studying for their Professional membership requirements.

Alan has been a longstanding member of Toastmasters and Rotary. He has served on many professional committees, and is a member of both the Institute of Directors and the Chartered Accountant Australia and New Zealand.

Alan has a wealth of experience to offer your business, be it at start up or helping it grow along the way. He has provided financial support to numerous pre-schools. Today we will show you the benefits of regular meaningful reporting and cash flow management.
